CIVIL ACTION NO.
7:01-cv-0303-UWC

FAMILY DOLLAR'S MOTION FOR JUDGMENT AS A MATTER OF LAW
AT THE CLOSE OF ALL THE EVIDENCE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 50(a), Defendant Family Dollar Stores, Inc. hereby moves the Court, at the close of all the evidence, to grant it judgment on Plaintiffs' claims on the following grounds:

1. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find that Plaintiffs established the elements of a prima facie case under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

2. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find that Plaintiffs are or were not employed "in a bona fide executive . . . capacity." 29 U.S.C. § 213(a)(1).

3. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury not to find that Plaintiffs' primary duty consists or consisted of management of the enterprise.

4. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury not to find that Plaintiffs customarily or regularly direct or directed the work of two or more employees.

5. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury not to find that commencing August 23, 2004 Plaintiffs have or had the authority to hire or fire other employees or that their suggestions and recommendations as to the hiring, firing, advancement, promotion, or any other change of status of other employees are or were given particular weight.

6. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find in favor of Plaintiffs on their claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act because the trial representatives' testimony was not representative of some or all of the Plaintiffs in the collective. In Support of this part of the motion Family Dollar incorporates by reference the affidavit of Mary Baker.

7. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find that the testimony of any Plaintiffs who testified at trial is representative of any other Plaintiff.

8. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find in favor of any Plaintiff if that Plaintiff did not testify at trial.

9. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find in favor of any Plaintiff based upon the testimony of another Plaintiff.

10. Family Dollar cannot be forced to prove the FLSA's executive exemption from overtime based on representative evidence. Under the FLSA and the FLSA regulations, the executive exemption from overtime applies individually based on all the facts in a particular case. The Court's limit on the number of depositions Family Dollar could take and the Court's decision that plaintiffs were not required to appear at the trial improperly and unfairly prevented Family Dollar from mounting an individualized defense to each Plaintiff's claims.

11. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury not to find that Family Dollar acted in good faith reliance on a written administrative regulation, order, ruling, approval, interpretation, or administrative practice or enforcement policy of the Department of Labor's Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division when it treated Plaintiffs as executive employees exempt from overtime. 29 U.S.C. § 259(a).

12. There is no reasonable evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury not to find that Family Dollar acted in good faith and had reasonable grounds for believing that treating Plaintiffs as executive employees exempt from overtime was consistent with the Fair Labor Standards Act. 29 U.S.C. § 260. For the same reason, the Court is not authorized to award Plaintiffs liquidated damages on their claims.

13. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find that Family Dollar committed a willful violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

14. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find in favor of any Plaintiff who filed their written consent to become a party to this action more than three years after their claims accrued. The Plaintiffs listed at Tab 1 include those whom Family Dollar contends, based upon information and belief, are subject to this ground.

15. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find in favor of any Plaintiff who filed their written consent to become a party to this action more than two years after their claims accrued.

The Plaintiffs listed at Tab 2 include those whom Family Dollar contends, based upon information and belief, are subject to this ground.

16. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to award any Plaintiff damages for claims made more than three years before they each filed their written consent to become a party to this action.

17. There is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to award any Plaintiff damages for claims made more than two years before they each filed their written consent to become a party of this action. The Plaintiffs listed at Tab 3 include those whom Family Dollar contends, based upon information and belief, are subject to this ground.

18. Any Plaintiff whose claims are the property of their bankruptcy estates lacks standing to pursue their claims. See Tabs 4 and 5 and 6.

19. Any Plaintiff who failed to list their claims as an asset on their bankruptcy schedules is judicially estopped from pursuing their claims. See Tabs 4 and 5.

20. Family Dollar expressly incorporates into this motion the grounds listed in its motion for judgment as a matter of law filed at the close of the Plaintiffs' case.

21. Family Dollar expressly incorporates into this motion any grounds articulated by its counsel orally at trial.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Jay St. Clair
